an invitation to speak with

Alex Schweder

3 may 2010

12.00 noon

Performative Kunst, EA 3

Academy of Fine Arts Vienna

Schillerplatz 3, 1010 Wien

Alex Schweder La will speak about his recent works of „performance architecture“. Through this presentation, Schweder will explain how he has come to understand architectures to be built as much from behavior as they are from bricks. While his explorations have a wide range in their material palate, Schweders La's experimentation with blurring the line between subjects and objects remains consistent.
